EDITORIAL

It is with considerable regret that I have to report that Joan Goddard, your B.T.G. Editor has resigned her position. Another tragedy has also occurred in that due to financial problems, QAS has had to withdraw its patronage after carrying B.T.G. for 2 years at the cost of several hundred dollars. Thank you QAS for showing the way and to Joan for her editorship. Yet another tragedy is that PRO TEM I am acting editor until your Committee can find from those within our ranks a budding editor. How about you, dear reader? No censors and you can say what you think within legal limits, of course! Any offers?

ROVING AROUND

The Queen's Birthday Congress was held last weekend. In the Opening Pairs, Freda McLean and Eric Tee were our best placed pair in 7th slot out of 36 and just failed to pick up some folding money. They'll get little red tickets. In the Open Pairs, Bob Cox with our Cellie finished a very creditable 4th in the Consolation out of 30 pairs. Yours truly partnered by Jack Lever finished 2nd in the Open Pairs and in the Open Teams added the further competence of Jeff Lathbury and John Lester to win that event. Our foursome of Dan and Aleda, Joan and Bob finished third in a tough field.

manoeuvring. Average Top for September was only 62.3%. There has only been one lower month since June 1976, and the progressive figure for the year is down to 62.7%

CLUB RESULTS - 28th September 1977

Splendid win for Addison/Garside and clear 2nd for Godden/Penny - outscoring all regular club pairs .. Eversden/Eversden fly high .. 1. more poor scores for Hubbard/Pratt (46.3%), Hart/Hart (44.3%) and many sundry others .. must mention 42% for Clark A/Price - unbelievable! Addison/Garside 66.8%; Godden/Penny 59.9%; Turley/Turley 57.7%; Eversden/Eversden 56.5%; Hopper/Kirby 55.1%; Gartner/Hardman 54.3%; Chisholm/L'Herpiniere 52.8%.

CLUB RESULTS - 5th October 1977

A bounce and a half - Charters/Charters 'have at' Kibitzer with 66% .. Hopper/Kirby 'escalate' .. Harvey/Harvey get it right and tie 4th .. notable failures are, comparatively, Ramsay/Teague (50%), last week's winners (46.9%), Cox/Price (44%) - on a diet ? - and McLean/Tee (45%). Charters/Charters 56.2%; Goddard R/Hart P 64.8%; Hopper/Kirby 63.9%; Harvey/Harvey 58.0%; Eldred/Shieff 58.0%; Turley/Turley 55.7%; D'Rozario/Godden 53.7%

The Club Mixed Pairs at last got under way on Friday and Ellen Prince seems to be on her way to a second club championship this year, this time with Wilf D'Rozario. They lead from Celestine Eldred and Garry Shieff (who was absent and a Tasmanian who came over as a member of their State Team, one Bob Cox, substituted for Garry). One wonders where our Cellie finds all these men! However, one also wonders "Was he a valid substitute. Membership??!! Sign him up, Cellie. Ruby and Max Turley made third spot. What will happen in the remaining two rounds? Your dynamic pro tem editor will produce an exhilarating account in the next edition of B.T.G! WHAT'S NEXT .. Rosendorff's Bridge Club has its Congress on 4th-6th November and the Bush Congress at Manjedal is on 19th-20th November. This is always a lot of fun. Come and join in.
